

9th March 2020

TO WHOMEVER IT MAY CONCERN

This is to certify that Yash Thakur has been a part of the virtual internship with Child Rights and You (CRY) for a period of 4 weeks from 5th February to 4th March 2020.

He worked as an intern under Ms. Smriti Rustagi. He has been an online intern and has successfully completed project:

- He has been instrumental in facilitating remedial support to children through an online mode on essential concepts which included but were not limited to English, Hindi and Maths, wherein he promoted learning through fun activities like games, dance and reciting poems to rouse the interest of the students. He would also conduct periodic assessments to check the progress of the children on the subjects she was mentoring them with
- Through his sessions, he also helped in bringing about a behavioural change among the children through interaction and visual aids with the children and their parents in the community. He carefully devised innovative and creative strategies to teach the children under his guidance, so as to make learning fun for them.

As an intern, Yash has been very committed, diligent, and proactive in the assignments He undertook during his tenure of internship with us. He has been an asset to the organization and hope for his continued association with our organization.

We sincerely hope that he will remain an active patron of child rights and continue to contribute towards the well-being of the society.

We wish him all the best in her future endeavors.

Regards,

Smriti Rustagi
Associate
Volunteer Action Team, North